

The Coast Guard Lady

Catching up with the CG's Most Prolific Letter Writer – Lois Bouton

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (Feb 21, 2007) — The CGC JUNIPER is seen here transiting down the Potomac River. The JUNIPER is heading back to its homeport in Newport, R.I. after attending training in Norfolk, Va. At 225 feet long, the JUNIPER is outfitted with some of the most advanced technological and navigational capabilities currently available.

USCG Photo by PA2 Constantina Mourtos